

My Dream Garden

by Sofia Galdamez

"Slurp, slurp", oops sorry I was just eating a popsicle on my lawn in my dream garden. Do you want a tour? Yes, then let me show you around! First, you have to walk through this passageway, surrounded by beautiful bushes. On the bushes are some gorgeous flowers all in rainbow order. Some of the flowers on the bushes are spiky, smooth, or a combination of both.

After you walk through the passageway, "cricket, cricket". Did you hear that? That's because we're right next to my pond. My pond is filled with animals such as fish and frogs. I have a sailboat in my pond, to sail on nice days. When I'm on my sailboat I feel like a pirate. The frogs in my pond enjoy relaxing on top of lovely lily pads.

Towards the center of my dream garden is a lovely birdhouse. Around the birdhouse are cute tulips. Everyday there is a certain bird that comes to the birdhouse. I named the bird Blueberry, because of her blue feathers. The birdhouse is mint green and the roof of the house is chocolate brown. Inside the birdhouse I placed a mini sofa for the birds to lay on

All the way to the left of my dream garden you'll find a giant tree. I grew the tree for over ten years. On one of the large branches, I attached a tire swing. I really enjoy the tire swing, because I could spin, swing, and twirl on it. Do you like to climb trees? If you do, great, my tree has lots of branches to climb and sit on. In the fall, the leaves of my tree turn brown and fall off.

In the back of my dream garden, I have a flowerbed. In the flowerbed I grow sunflowers and tulips. The tulips are light purple, pink, and dark purple. I planted the flowers in a certain order: sunflower, tulip, sunflower, tulip, sunflower, tulip. The sunflowers are as tall as me, if not taller than me. The tulips are very small, but they are so bright.

Did I ever mention that my garden is on a hill? To me it is an advantage, because every day, I wake up and watch the sunrise on the left side of the hill. In the afternoon I get to watch the sun go down on the right side of the hill. When I go to the other side of the hill, I have a library, because I like to read and write. If I'm lucky enough, sometimes I get to see birds migrate.

I really like my dream garden, and I hope you like it just as much as I do. My dream garden will continue growing everyday even better. My garden helps me relax after a stressful day at school. I hope you felt relaxed too. I promise you can come back soon.
